THE REGIMENTAL SERGEANT MAJOR

RSM WARD, the Battalion Regimental Sergeant Major, who is today being presented with the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal comes from NOTTINGHAM and started his Army career as a National Serviceman in the Royal Army Ordnance Corps in 1948. He quickly proved himself by attaining the rank of Sergeant within two years of entry. Three years later he was promoted to Warrant Officer which is no mean achievement.

He has been with Ordnance establishments in Britain and abroad, serving in Egypt, Malaya and Germany - a good sportsman, he has represented the Corps at Rugby and Cricket.

Appointed RSM in 1959, WOI WARD was posted to the Junior Leaders Battalion in September 1966 and has remained here since that date.

THE JUNIOR RSM

Junior RSM Andrew GEMMELL comes from Forres in Morayshire, Scotland. He enlisted at the Army Information and Careers Office at Inverness and was mainly influenced in his choice of a career by his brother, at present with the Royal Signals in Catterick - himself an ex-boy.

JRSM GEMMELL will have completed 2½ years with the Junior Leaders Battalion on passing out 14th April 1969.

His interests whilst a Junior Leader have been varied. His main sports have been soccer, cross country and canoeing, and he is keen on canoe building/maintenance as a hobby.

He has successfully completed a Storeman BIII Course and has his ACE II. He hopes eventually to become trained as a Vehicle Specialist.
